SUBCHAPTER 12

SPECIAL PERMITS

§15-15-95 Petition before county planning commission. (a) any person who desires to use land within an agricultural or rural district for other than a permissible agricultural or rural use may petition the county planning commission within which the land is located for a special permit to use the land in the manner desired. Special permits for areas greater than fifteen acres require approval of both the county planning commission and the commission. Special permits approved by the county planning commission and which require commission approval must be forwarded to the commission within sixty days following the county planning commission's decision. The decision, together with the complete record, including maps, charts, and other exhibits as evidence, of the proceeding before the county planning commission must be transmitted to the commission. Unless otherwise required by the commission, the planning commission shall file with the commission an original and fifteen copies of the complete record.

(b) Certain "unusual and reasonable" uses within agricultural and rural districts other than those for which the district is classified may be permitted. The following guidelines are established in determining an "unusual and reasonable use":

- (1) The use shall not be contrary to the objectives sought to be accomplished by chapter 205 and 205A, HRS, and the rules of the commission;
- (2) The desired use would not adversely affect surrounding property;
- (3) The use would not unreasonably burden public agencies to provide roads and streets, sewers, water drainage and school improvements, and police and fire protection;
- (4) Unusual conditions, trends, and needs have arisen since the district boundaries and rules were established; and
- (5) The land upon which the proposed use is sought is unsuited for the uses permitted within the district.

(c) Petitions for issuance of a special permit shall specify the use desired and state concisely the nature of the petitioner's interest in the subject mater and the reasons for seeking the special permit, and shall include any facts, views, arguments, maps, plans, and relevant data.

(d) The petitioner shall comply with all the rules of practice and procedure of the county planning commission in which the subject property is located.

(e) The county planning commission may impose such protective conditions as it deems necessary in the issuance of a special use permit. The county planning commission shall establish, among other conditions, a reasonable time limit suited to establishing the particular use, and if appropriate, a time limit for the duration of the particular use, which shall be a condition of the special permit. If the permitted use is not substantially established to the satisfaction of the county planning commission within the specified time, it may revoke the permit. The county planning commission, with the concurrence of the commission, may extend the time limit if it deems that circumstances warrant the granting of the extension. [Eff 10/27/86; am and comp AUG 16, 1997] (Auth: HRS §§205-1, 205-7) (Imp: HRS §205-6)

§15-15-96 Decision and order by the land use commission. (a) Within forty-five days after receipt of the county planning commission's decision, together with the complete record of the proceeding before the county planning commission, the commission shall act to approve, approve with modification, or deny the petition. The commission may impose additional restrictions as may be necessary or appropriate in granting the approval, including the adherence to representations made by the petitioner. Upon determination by the commission, the petition may be
